PRAYER TO ST. CATHERINE OF BOLOGNA

St. Catherine of Bologna, patron of artists and of our parish,
I humbly ask you to intercede on my behalf to gain for me, my family and our parish the grace of love and trust, peace and forgiveness.

O Dear St. Catherine,
Let your uncorrupt body be a sign of God's presence in our midst and of the unconditional love our crucified Lord has for each one of us.

May your art inspire us
and may the Franciscan spirit of humility,
simplicity, and obedience,
so close to your heart,
be present in our words, actions and thoughts
at every moment.

St. Catherine of Bologna - pray for us!

FROM FR. PAWEL

“Do not be afraid, only have faith”

Those words spoken by Christ to Jairus have power of encouragement and consulting our broken hearts. I can only imagine the pain but also hope of Jairus when he heard those words from Jesus. How could he take those words seriously? How could he believe in those words of a stranger when every minute his little daughter was slipping from his fingers into the shadow of death?

When the girl was at her last breath the good father shall be with her, holding her hand, consoling her mother. Why did this man, instead of being with his lovely daughter, walk on the roads of the town and plead to a stranger? What motivated him to do it? What was he hoping for?

Truly great had to be his faith, confidence, and determination to leave the side of his dying daughter and plead to this man from Nazareth for the grace of healing.

If you feel my dear brothers and sisters that you are struggling, that something in you is slowly dying, learn the lesson from Jairus. Leave your problems, anxiety, unfinished business, and past wounds behind you. Do not waste any more time stuck to your spiritual, emotional, or physical deathbed. There is no solution there for anyone. Only following Christ just like Jairus did can change your situation for the better. Leave the problems behind and come close to Christ. The closer we come to Him, the closer we are to the solution. More attachments to our problems and wounds, less healing power coming from the God's close presence.

Leaving the problems behind and follow Christ by receiving Him in the Eucharist, sacrament of Reconciliation, by daily prayer and working on the virtues and vices helps one to stay away from the emotional, intellectual, and physical deathbed. The healing comes from Christ, His words, love, and blessing.

We need to attend to our needs, problems, and challenges. Sometimes we think that prayer is a waste of time. But then, years later, we recognize there are still things to take care of and we did not move an inch walking in the circles of mistakes. We are stuck next to the things that are broken, dead or not important. The example from the Gospel tells us to challenge it and change it. It is time to walk away from whatever is unwanted, unsolved, or damaging. Follow Christ, allow Him to carry you, your burden, your broken dreams, your wounded mind, and your bleeding heart.

The solution is there: Christ Himself. Leave all those problems behind you, then you discover that the more you trust Him and confide in Him, the problems that seemed like a mountain of troubles will melt away under the rays of the Son of God.

This is how God operates in us. The less we think and focus on ourselves, we give God more opportunity to work in and for us. Jairus knew that to cure his daughter he needs to leave her behind and come to Jesus. Leaving everything what is dear to us and putting God on the first place, does not take away anything or anyone from us but adds more meaning and sense to what we already have. To anyone who struggles, God's presence is solution. His love, grace and forgiveness conquer the sins and wounds in our hearts. We just need to trust and be confident in the plan that God has in His mind for each one of us. "Do not be afraid, only have faith".
